

64-1894/A

Honorable Ralph Yarborough
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Yarborough:

Thank you for your letter of 12 March enclosing a background resume for [redacted]

[redacted] contacted our Personnel office in July, 1963, concerning his interest in our work. His qualifications were thoroughly considered at that time but we did not have a vacancy commensurate with his background and experience. We shall be glad to review [redacted] application in light of our current openings and have written to him to advise him of this review. A copy of our letter to him is enclosed for your information. [redacted] s-resume is returned herewith as you requested, but we have taken the liberty of making a copy of it for our file.

Your interest in writing to me in [redacted] behalf is appreciated and we shall advise you of the results of our review of his application.

Sincerely,

John A. McCone
Director
